Overview

Linz is the capital of Upper Austria and sits on the Danube. It was once an industrial city and has reinvented itself as a centre of media art and technology. It is a UNESCO City of Media Arts.

The centre is compact, with a large main square, a castle and modern museums on the riverbank. Linz works well as a one-day stop on the Danube route between Passau and Vienna.

When to visit

May to September is the best time for walking and cycling along the Danube. The Ars Electronica Festival takes place in September. Winters are cold and foggy, and the Christmas market on the Hauptplatz is popular. Summer days can be hot.

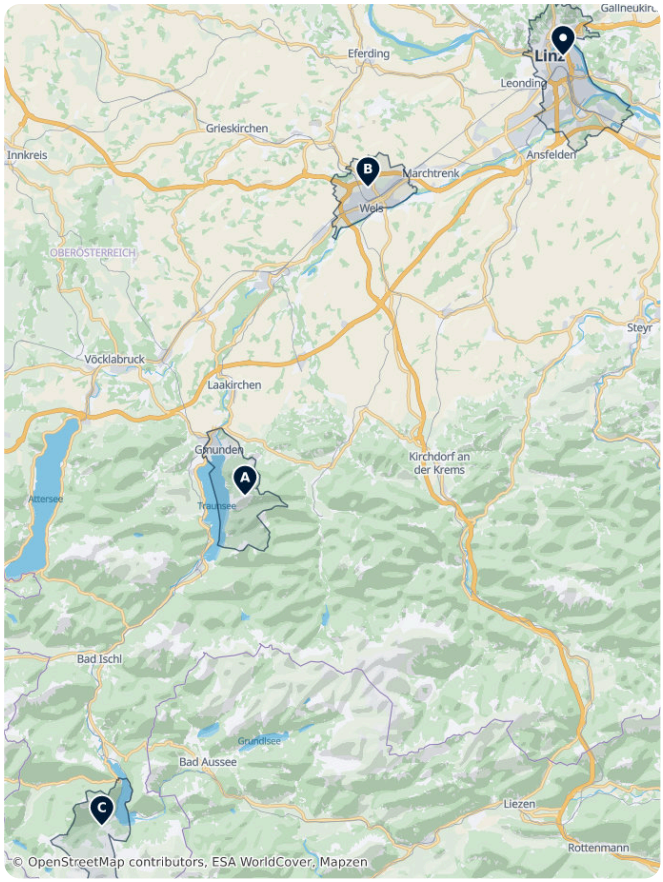
- Vienna is about 1 hour 15 minutes by fast train.



Getting there

- By air: Linz Airport has limited flights. Most visitors arrive via Vienna, Salzburg or Munich.
- By train: Linz is on the main Vienna–Salzburg line. Vienna takes about 1 hour 15 minutes and Salzburg about 1 hour 15 minutes. Check times on ÖBB.
- By car: The A1 motorway passes the city.
- By boat: Danube river cruises stop in Linz.

Getting around

The centre is flat and small. Trams and buses cover the rest of the city. The Pöstlingberg tram leaves from the main square area. The railway station is about 10 minutes' walk from the centre by tram. Cycling is easy along the Danube.

Getting around on foot & by bike

WALKABILITY

High

The centre is flat and compact. The Pöstlingberg is a hill best reached by tram.

CYCLING INFRASTRUCTURE

High

The Danube cycle path runs through the city, and bike lanes cover most of the centre.

Driving

A car is not necessary in the city. The old town has pedestrian areas and limited parking. A car helps for the lakes of the Salzkammergut. Motorways in Austria need a vignette.

Food & drink

Linz is the home of the Linzer Torte, a nut and jam tart, which is often said to be the oldest known cake. Upper Austrian food includes dumplings, roast pork and river fish. Traditional inns serve local beer and cider.

What to eat & drink

DINNER

Wiener Schnitzel
A thin, breaded and pan-fried veal cutlet, traditionally served with potato salad or parsley potatoes and a wedge of lemon.

Tafelspitz
Boiled beef in broth, served with roast potatoes and a sauce of apples and horseradish — a favourite of Emperor Franz Joseph.

Viennese Goulash · Wiener Saftgulasch
A rich beef stew slow-cooked with onions and paprika, typically served with a bread dumpling or bread roll.

SNACKS & STREET FOOD

Käsekrainer
A grilled pork sausage studded with melty cheese, a classic order at Vienna's ubiquitous Würstelstand (sausage stands).

Sausage Stand Snack · Würstel vom Würstelstand
Grilled or boiled sausages (Bratwurst, Frankfurter, Bosna) served with mustard, bread and a pickle from street kiosks.

SWEETS & DESSERTS

Apfelstrudel
Thin pastry rolled around spiced apples, raisins and breadcrumbs, usually served warm with vanilla sauce or cream.

Sachertorte
A dense chocolate cake with a thin layer of apricot jam under a dark chocolate glaze, famously served with unsweetened whipped cream.

Kaiserschmarrn
A fluffy shredded pancake caramelised with sugar and dusted with icing sugar, served with plum or apple compote.

Marillenknödel
Apricot dumplings wrapped in potato or quark dough, rolled in buttery breadcrumbs — a Wachau and Viennese summer specialty.

DRINKS

Viennese Melange · Wiener Melange
The signature Viennese coffee: espresso topped with steamed milk and milk foam, the centrepiece of coffeehouse culture.

Grüner Veltliner
Austria's flagship crisp, peppery white wine, widely poured in Vienna's Heuriger (wine taverns).

Sturm
A cloudy, lightly alcoholic partially-fermented grape must, available only for a few weeks in autumn.

Safety & health

Linz is safe. Take normal care with belongings in crowded areas. Tap water is clean and safe to drink. The emergency number is 112.

History

Linz began as a Roman fort and later became a trading town on the Danube. Emperor Frederick III made it his residence in the 15th century. The composer Anton Bruckner lived and worked here. In the 20th century Linz grew into a steel and chemical centre. Since the 1980s it has focused on art and technology.
