Overview

Las Palmas de Gran Canaria is the largest city in the Canary Islands. It has a colonial old quarter, a long city beach and a busy port. The city is warm in all seasons.

It suits a city break with beach time. Many visitors also use it as a base for the island's mountains and villages.

When to visit

The weather is mild all year, so any season works. Summer is warmest, and winter is a popular escape from colder countries. A dusty haze called calima can arrive from the Sahara on some days.

The biggest event is the Carnival in February or March, one of the largest in Spain, with parades, music and costume contests.

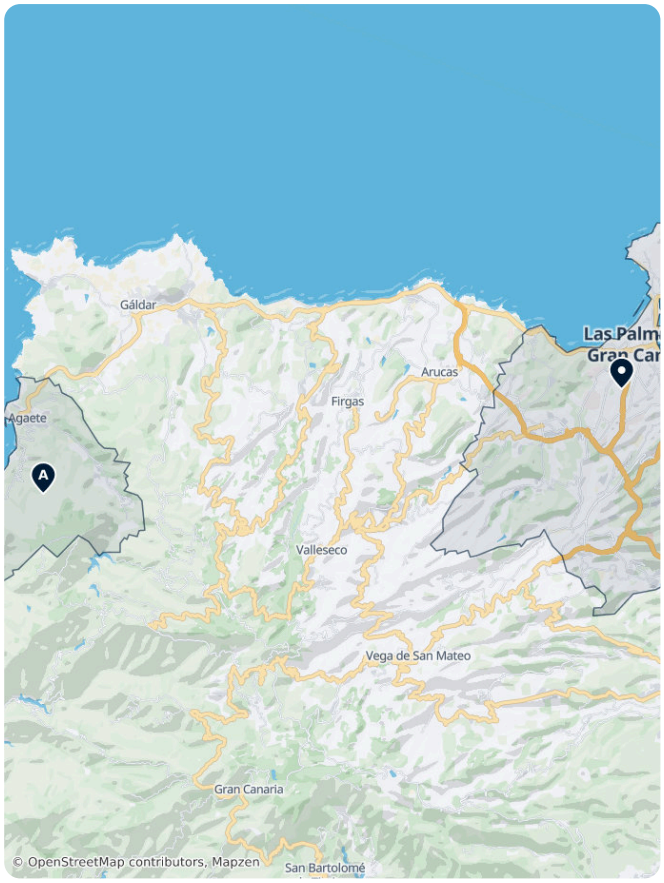
What to experience

- Swim or surf at Las Canteras. Surf schools offer lessons all year.
- Walk the long beach promenade at sunset, from the south end to the lighthouse area.

Day trips

- Teror (about 20 km, 30 minutes by bus or car): a hill town with wooden balconies and a large church.
- A Agaete (about 35 km, 40 minutes by car): a coastal town with a small port and ferries to Tenerife.
- Maspalomas dunes (about 50 km, 45 minutes by bus or car): a large area of sand dunes on the south coast.
- Tejeda and Roque Nublo (about 50 km, 1 hour 15 minutes by car): mountain villages and a famous rock peak.



Where to explore

Other places on Gran Canaria:

- Island: Gran Canaria has the full guide to the island.
- West coast: Agaete.
- South coast: San Bartolomé de Tirajana includes the big beach resorts.

Getting there

- By air: Gran Canaria airport (LPA) is about 20 km south of the city. Buses and taxis take about 30 to 40 minutes.
- By ferry and air: Ferries and short flights link Las Palmas with the other Canary Islands.
- There is no train service.

Getting around

- On foot: Vegueta and Triana are close together and easy to walk. Las Canteras beach is a short bus ride or a long walk from them.
- Bus: City buses, called guaguas, cover the whole city.
- Cycling: A flat promenade runs along the beach, and cycling is practical there.

Getting around on foot & by bike

WALKABILITY

Moderate

Vegueta and Triana are compact, and Las Canteras is a bus ride or a long walk away.

CYCLING INFRASTRUCTURE

Moderate

A flat promenade runs along the beach.

Driving

- Is a car worth it?: Not for the city. A car is useful for the mountains and the south of the island.
- Parking: Parking in the center is hard. Use an underground car park.
- Restrictions: Few. Some streets in Vegueta are pedestrian only.

Food & drink

Canarian food is simple and local. Papas arrugadas are small boiled potatoes served with red and green mojo sauces. Gofio is toasted grain flour used in many dishes. Fresh fish is common.

For local food, go to the Vegueta and Triana districts. Beach restaurants line the Las Canteras promenade.

What to eat & drink

BREAKFAST

Churros · Churros con Chocolate
Fried dough sticks served with a thick, dark hot chocolate for dipping — a classic Spanish breakfast or late-night snack.

LUNCH

Paella Valenciana
A saffron-scented rice dish cooked in a wide, shallow pan. The traditional Valencian version uses chicken, rabbit, and green beans — best eaten at midday.

Gazpacho
A cold, blended soup of raw tomatoes, cucumber, pepper, garlic, olive oil, and vinegar, originally from Andalusia. Served as a drink or a starter, especially in summer.

DINNER

Pulpo a la Gallega
Boiled octopus sliced onto a wooden board and dressed with olive oil, coarse salt, and smoked paprika — a signature dish of Galicia.

SNACKS & STREET FOOD

Jamón Ibérico
Dry-cured ham from acorn-fed Iberian pigs, sliced paper-thin and eaten on its own or with bread. The finest grade, jamón ibérico de bellota, is one of Spain's most prized products.

Tortilla Española
A thick potato and egg omelette, served warm or at room temperature, found in virtually every bar in Spain. Often eaten as a tapa or a quick meal.

Patatas Bravas
Fried potato chunks served with a spicy tomato sauce or aioli — one of the most common tapas across the country.

Pintxos
Small snacks anchored to slices of bread with a toothpick, the Basque Country's answer to tapas. Found in bar counters across San Sebastián and Bilbao, often with elaborate toppings.

Croquetas
Crispy breaded cylinders with a creamy béchamel filling, typically made with jamón, bacalà (salt cod), or mushrooms.

DRINKS

Rioja Wine · Vino de Rioja

Spain's best-known wine region produces full-bodied reds from Tempranillo grapes, aged in oak. The crianza, reserva, and gran reserva labels indicate increasing age and complexity.

Safety & health

Las Palmas is safe for visitors. Watch your bag in the port area and on the beach. The sun is strong all year, so use sun protection. On Las Canteras, swim inside the reef and follow the flags.

History

Spain founded the city in 1478 in the area now called Vegueta. Catedral de Santa Ana was begun around 1500.

Christopher Columbus stopped in the city on his voyages to the Americas, and Columbus House remembers this link. The port later grew into one of the busiest in the Atlantic.

Culture & Museums

Las Palmas de Gran Canaria preserves its history through a network of cultural sites spanning the Vegueta and Puerto districts. Key highlights include the 15th-century Castillo de la Luz, the city's oldest fortification, and the Casa de Colón, which documents Christopher Columbus's voyages. Visitors can explore pre-Hispanic history at El Museo Canario, contemporary art at CAAM, and the legacy of local artists at the Nestor Museum. The city's performing arts are centered in the landmark Alfredo Kraus Auditorium and the historic Teatro Pérez Galdós.
