TRAVEL GUIDE

Tripomatic

Overview

Lugano is the largest city in Ticino, the Italian-speaking part of Switzerland. It lies on a lake and is surrounded by green mountains. The mood is Mediterranean, with piazzas, palm trees and arcades.

The city is compact. Most visitors stay two or three days. Many come for the lake, the mountain views and the food.

When to visit

May to October is the best time. Summers are warm and humid, and the lake is good for swimming. September is the pleasant peak, with warm days and fewer crowds. Winters are mild but can be grey. Spring brings flowers and fresh green hills. Rain can be heavy in spring and autumn.

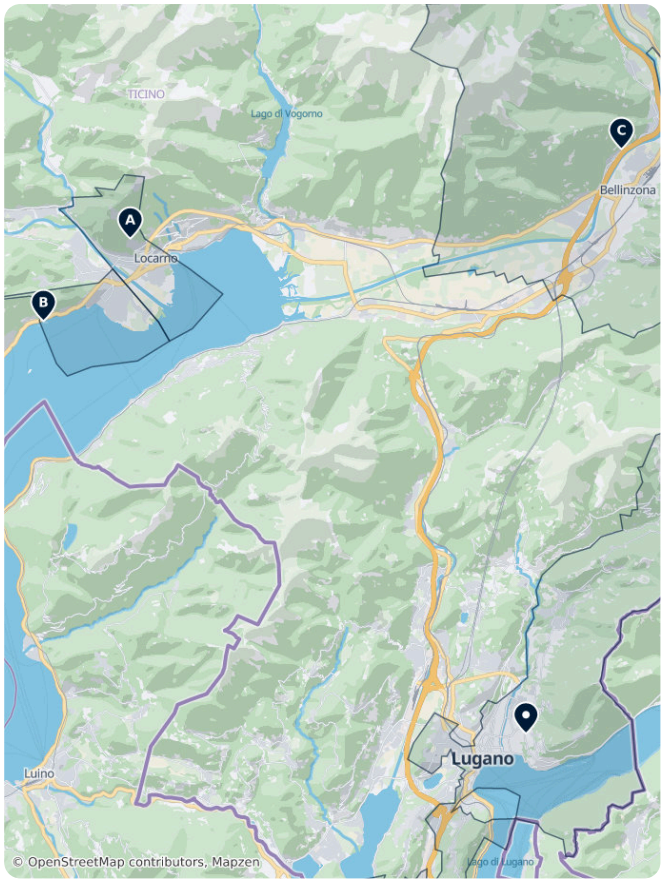
What to experience

- Take a lake boat to Gandria, a village built on a steep shore.
- Walk or cycle along the lake in Parco Civico Villa Ciani.
- See the grave of the writer Hermann Hesse, who lived in a village near Lugano.
- Visit Swissminiatur in Melide, a park with models of Swiss buildings.
- Swim at the lido or in the lake in summer.
- Hike along the ridge paths on Monte Brè.

Day trips

- A Locarno is a town on Lake Maggiore with the Piazza Grande. It is about 40 minutes away by train and bus.
- B Ascona is a pretty lake village next to Locarno.
- C Bellinzona has three medieval castles that are a UNESCO World Heritage site. It is about 30 minutes away by train.
- Milan is about 1.5 hours away by train, and Como in Italy is also close.



Where to explore

- Locarno, Ascona and Bellinzona are the other main towns of Ticino.

Getting there

- By air: Lugano has a small airport with a few flights. Most visitors fly to Zurich or Milan and take the train.
- By train: Trains run from Zurich in about 2 hours through the Gotthard Base Tunnel. Milan is about 1.5 hours away. Check times on SBB.
- The station is on a hill above the centre. A short funicular goes down to the lake.

Getting around

- The old centre and lake promenade are easy to walk.
- Buses cover the rest of the city. Buy tickets at machines before you ride.
- Hotel guests in Ticino get a free public transport card. Ask at check-in.
- Boats cross the lake to small villages, including Gandria and Morcote.
- Funiculars go to Monte Brè and Monte San Salvatore.

Getting around on foot & by bike

WALKABILITY

Moderate

The lakefront and centre are flat and walkable. Other districts are on hills.

CYCLING INFRASTRUCTURE

Moderate

The lakeside is flat, but the hills around the city are steep.

Driving

- A car is not needed for the city. Parking is limited and costly.
- A car can help for the mountains and villages around the lake. Mountain roads are narrow and winding.
- Traffic can be heavy on summer weekends and on the motorway toward Italy.

Food & drink

The food is Italian-Swiss. Try risotto, polenta and local salami. Merlot wine from Ticino is the local red wine. Look for grotti, which are traditional stone taverns in the woods that serve simple meals outside.

Cafés in the centre are a place for a slow coffee. Prices are high compared with northern Italy.

What to eat & drink

BREAKFAST

Birchermüesli
A raw-oat, fruit, and yogurt breakfast invented by a Zurich doctor around 1900, now standard on breakfast buffets.

LUNCH

Rösti
A fried, shredded-potato cake, originally a Bernese farmer's breakfast, now a national side dish.

DINNER

Cheese Fondue · Fondue
Melted Gruyère and Vacherin cheese in a shared pot, eaten by dipping bread cubes on long forks.

Raclette
Cheese melted tableside or under a grill and scraped over boiled potatoes, pickles, and onions.

Zürcher Geschnetzeltes
Sliced veal and mushrooms in a creamy white-wine sauce, traditionally served with rösti.

Älplermagronen
Alpine herder's macaroni gratin with potatoes, cheese, and cream, often topped with fried onions and served with apple sauce.

SNACKS & STREET FOOD

Cervelat
Switzerland's best-known sausage, usually grilled and often called the country's unofficial national dish.

SWEETS & DESSERTS

Swiss Chocolate · Schweizer Schokolade
Switzerland pioneered milk chocolate in the 19th century; look for small-batch chocolatiers alongside the big national brands.

Basler Läckerli
A dense, spiced honey-and-candied-fruit biscuit from Basel, traditional around Christmas.

DRINKS

Swiss Wine · Vin Suisse
Mostly consumed domestically rather than exported; Valais and Vaud, along Lake Geneva, produce the best-known Chasselas whites.

Safety & health

- Lugano is very safe.
- Watch your bags on crowded boats and in the centre in summer.
- Tap water is safe to drink.
- Summer can be hot and humid. Drink water and use sun protection on the lake.

History

Lugano was long part of the Duchy of Milan. In 1512 it became part of the Swiss Confederation, and in 1803 it joined the new canton of Ticino. The city grew as a centre of trade and finance.

In the 20th century writers and artists, including Hermann Hesse in nearby Montagnola, made the area known.
