Overview

Jerez de la Frontera is a city in Andalusia, in southwest Spain. It is the home of sherry wine, the Andalusian Horse and one of the great flamenco traditions.

The old town has a Moorish fortress, a cathedral and many bodegas (wine cellars) that offer tours and tastings. It suits one or two days, and it is close to Cádiz, Seville and the coast.

When to visit

Spring and autumn are the best seasons, with warm, sunny days. Summer is hot and dry, and winter is mild with some rain.

The Horse Fair (Feria del Caballo) in May is the main festival, with parades of horses and carriages. The grape harvest festival is in September, and the Flamenco Festival is in February and March.

What to experience

- Take a bodega tour with a sherry tasting, and learn how the wine is aged in barrels.
- See a flamenco show in a small venue in the old town. Jerez is one of the birthplaces of the art.

Day trips

- A Cádiz (about 35 km, 30 minutes by train or car): an old port city on a narrow peninsula.
- B Seville (about 90 km, 1 hour by car or train): the Andalusian capital.
- C Ronda (about 100 km, 1.5 hours by car): a town above a deep gorge.
- El Puerto de Santa María and Sanlúcar de Barrameda (about 20 to 30 km): sherry towns on the coast, known for seafood.

Where to explore

Other places in Andalusia:

- Coast: Cádiz.
- Cities: Seville and Granada.
- Hill town: Ronda.

Getting there

- By air: Jerez airport (XRY) is about 10 km from the center and has some domestic and European flights. Seville airport (SVQ) is about 90 km away and has more.
- By train: Trains link Jerez with Seville, Cádiz and Madrid. Book on Renfe.
- By bus: Coaches run to Cádiz, Seville and the nearby coast.

Getting around

- On foot: The old town is compact. Most sights and bodegas are within a 15 to 20 minute walk.
- Cycling: The city is mostly flat, but cycling paths are limited.

Getting around on foot & by bike

WALKABILITY

High

The old town is compact, and most sights are within a 15 to 20 minute walk.

CYCLING INFRASTRUCTURE

Moderate

The city is mostly flat, but cycling paths are limited.

Driving

- Is a car worth it?: Not for the old town. A car helps for the coast and the white villages.
- Parking: Use a car park at the edge of the old town.
- Restrictions: Parts of the center are closed to normal traffic.

Food & drink

Sherry is the signature drink. Try fino and manzanilla (dry, light) with tapas, and amontillado and oloroso (richer) with stews. Tabernas serve sherry from the barrel.

Local dishes include rabo de toro (oxtail stew), tortillitas de camarones (shrimp fritters) and fried fish. Tabanco is the local name for a traditional bar with sherry and tapas.

What to eat & drink

BREAKFAST

Churros · Churros con Chocolate
Fried dough sticks served with a thick, dark hot chocolate for dipping — a classic Spanish breakfast or late-night snack.

LUNCH

Paella Valenciana
A saffron-scented rice dish cooked in a wide, shallow pan. The traditional Valencian version uses chicken, rabbit, and green beans — best eaten at midday.

Gazpacho
A cold, blended soup of raw tomatoes, cucumber, pepper, garlic, olive oil, and vinegar, originally from Andalusia. Served as a drink or a starter, especially in summer.

DINNER

Pulpo a la Gallega
Boiled octopus sliced onto a wooden board and dressed with olive oil, coarse salt, and smoked paprika — a signature dish of Galicia.

SNACKS & STREET FOOD

Jamón Ibérico
Dry-cured ham from acorn-fed Iberian pigs, sliced paper-thin and eaten on its own or with bread. The finest grade, jamón ibérico de bellota, is one of Spain's most prized products.

Tortilla Española
A thick potato and egg omelette, served warm or at room temperature, found in virtually every bar in Spain. Often eaten as a tapa or a quick meal.

Patatas Bravas
Fried potato chunks served with a spicy tomato sauce or aioli — one of the most common tapas across the country.

Pintxos
Small snacks anchored to slices of bread with a toothpick, the Basque Country's answer to tapas. Found in bar counters across San Sebastián and Bilbao, often with elaborate toppings.

Croquetas
Crispy breaded cylinders with a creamy béchamel filling, typically made with jamón, bacalà (salt cod), or mushrooms.

DRINKS

Rioja Wine · Vino de Rioja

Spain's best-known wine region produces full-bodied reds from Tempranillo grapes, aged in oak. The crianza, reserva, and gran reserva labels indicate increasing age and complexity.

Safety & health

Jerez is a safe city. Summer heat is strong, so avoid the middle of the day, drink water and wear sun protection. Sherry is stronger than it tastes, so pace yourself on tastings.

History

Jerez was settled by the Phoenicians and Romans, and the Moors ruled it from the 8th century until 1264. It stayed on the frontier with the Moorish kingdom of Granada for two more centuries, which is the origin of the de la Frontera in its name.

The sherry trade grew from the 18th century, with English and Spanish families building the bodegas that stand in the city today.
