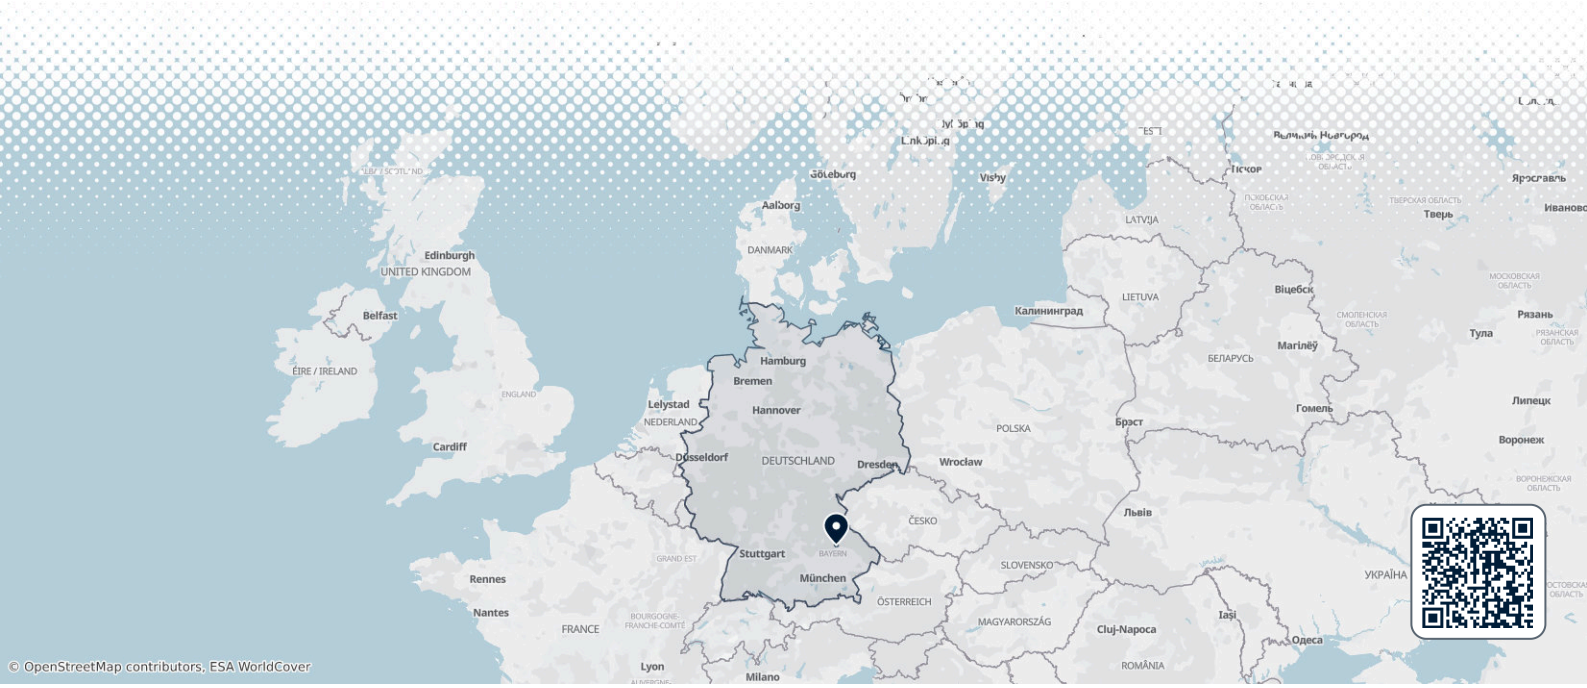
TRAVEL GUIDE

Tripomatic



Overview

Regensburg is a compact city on the Danube in eastern Bavaria. Its medieval old town is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Tall merchant towers, narrow lanes and a Gothic cathedral fill the centre.

The city suits a weekend trip. Most sights are within a short walk. It works well for history lovers, couples and travellers who want a smaller, calmer alternative to Munich or Nuremberg.

When to visit

Late spring and early autumn are the most pleasant seasons for walking the old town. Summer is warm and good for the riverside and beer gardens. Winter is cold, but the Christmas markets in December give the old town a festive mood.

Top sights

- A Altstadt von Regensburg mit Stadtamhof is the heart of the city. Medieval towers, churches and lanes sit close together, so it is best explored on foot.
- B Steinerne Brücke crosses the Danube and links the old town with Stadtamhof. It is a medieval bridge that is still used today.
- C Dom Sankt Peter is the Gothic cathedral. The Regensburger Domspatzen boys' choir sings here.
- D Altes Rathaus is the old town hall. Its rooms can be seen on a guided tour.
- E Porta praetoria is a surviving gate of the Roman fort. It shows the city's Roman roots.
- F Schloss St. Emmeram is the large palace of the Thurn und Taxis family. Its former monastery buildings include a cloister.
- G Basilika Sankt Emmeram is next to the palace. This church has a richly decorated baroque interior.
- H Goliathhaus is a tall house with a huge painted wall. The painting shows David and Goliath.

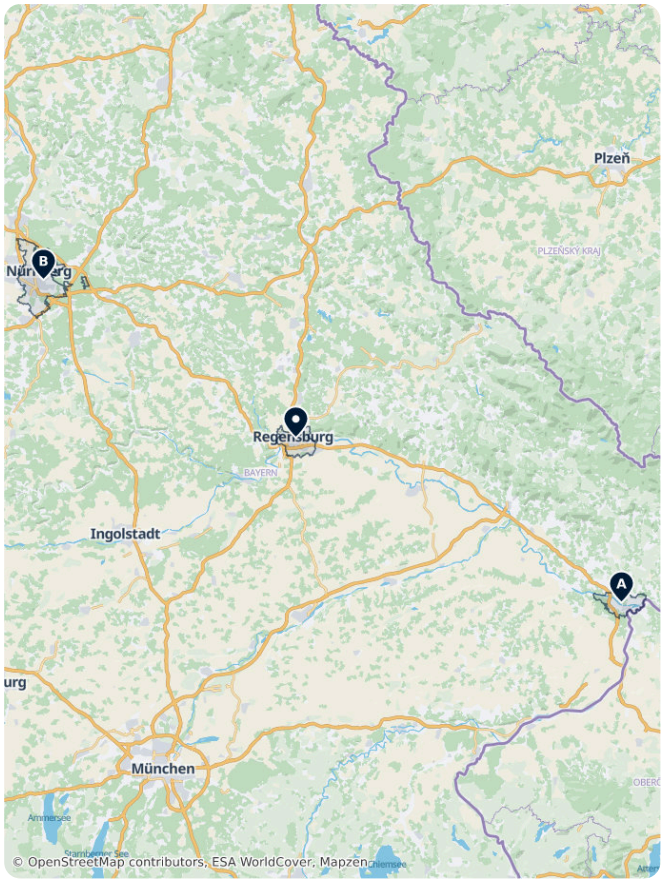
What to experience

- Christmas markets: several markets open in the old town in December.
- Regensburger Dult: a traditional fair held in spring and autumn. It has rides, stalls and beer tents.
- Domspatzen choir: the cathedral boys' choir sings at services.
- Danube boat trip: river cruises leave from the old town. A short trip shows the skyline from the water. Donau-Schiffahrts-Museum Regensburg tells the story of Danube shipping.

Day trips

Regensburg is a good base for short trips along the Danube.

- Walhalla, Donaustauf: about 10 km east of the city. A large Greek-style temple stands on a hill above the Danube. Take a bus or a boat, or drive.
- Kelheim and Weltenburg Abbey: upriver on the Danube. A boat ride from Kelheim leads through the Danube gorge to the abbey. The Befreiungshalle, a large domed hall, stands above Kelheim.
- Straubing: a historic old town downriver, about 30 to 60 minutes by train or car.
- Landshut: a medieval town with a long main street, about 1 hour by train.
- Ⓐ Passau lies where three rivers meet. It is about 1.5 to 2 hours away.
- Ⓑ Nuremberg is about 1 hour by train.



Where to explore

These cities are easy to combine with Regensburg:

- Munich for museums and a big-city stay.
- Nuremberg for the castle and Franconian culture.
- Bamberg for another UNESCO old town.
- Passau for the Danube and three rivers.
- Ingolstadt for a stop on the way to Munich.

Getting there

- By air: the city has no airport with scheduled flights. Most visitors fly to Munich Airport, about 100 km away. Nuremberg Airport is a similar distance. Both link to Regensburg by train or bus. Munich Airport
- By train: Regensburg Hauptbahnhof has direct trains to Munich, Nuremberg and Passau. Munich and Nuremberg are each about 1 to 1.5 hours away. Deutsche Bahn
- By bus: long-distance coaches also serve the city. Check routes before you travel.

Getting around

- Public transit: the city buses are run by the RVV. Tickets can be bought on board or in the RVVswipe app. RVV
- On foot and by bike: the old town is small and mostly flat, so walking is the best way to get around. The Danube cycle path passes through the city.

Getting around on foot & by bike

WALKABILITY

High

The old town is compact and mostly flat. Most sights are a short walk apart.

CYCLING INFRASTRUCTURE

High

Bike paths follow the Danube. The centre is flat and easy to cycle.

Driving

- Is a car worth it? No, for a city stay. The old town is small and best seen on foot. A car helps only for trips to smaller places around the city.
- Parking: use the car parks at the edge of the old town and walk in.

Food & drink

Bavarian dishes dominate. Look for roast pork, dumplings and local sausages with sweet mustard.

Historische Wurstkuchl is a small, historic sausage kitchen beside the Stone Bridge. It is worth a stop for grilled sausages on sauerkraut.

For other meals, try the lanes around the Haidplatz and Neupfarrplatz, and the beer gardens by the Danube.

What to eat & drink

LUNCH

Doner Kebab · Döner Kebab
A sandwich of roasted meat, salad, and sauce in flatbread, invented by Turkish immigrants in Berlin and now a national staple.

DINNER

Schnitzel
A thin, breaded and fried cutlet, usually pork, served with potatoes or fries and a lemon wedge.

Sauerbraten
A pot roast marinated for days in vinegar and spices before slow cooking, served with red cabbage and dumplings.

SNACKS & STREET FOOD

Bratwurst
A grilled or fried pork sausage, often served in a bread roll with mustard, sold at stands nationwide.

Currywurst
Sliced sausage topped with curry-spiced ketchup, a Berlin invention now popular across the country.

Pretzel · Brezel
A large, chewy salted bread pretzel, especially common in Bavaria, often eaten with butter or cheese.

SWEETS & DESSERTS

Black Forest Cake · Schwarzwälder Kirschtorte
A layered chocolate sponge cake with cherries, cherry liqueur, and whipped cream.

DRINKS

Beer · Bier
Germany brews hundreds of regional styles, from Bavarian Weissbier to Cologne's Kölsch, each tied to its home city.

Gluhwein · Glühwein
Mulled, spiced red wine served hot, a staple of winter and Christmas markets.

Apfelschorle
Apple juice mixed with sparkling water, the everyday non-alcoholic drink of choice.

Safety & health

Regensburg is a very safe city for visitors.

- Watch for pickpockets in crowded places, such as markets and festivals.
- Cobblestones are uneven and can be slippery when wet.

History

The Romans founded the fort of Castra Regina here in 179. Porta praetoria is a surviving Roman gate.

In the Middle Ages the city grew rich from trade along the Danube. The merchants' towers and the Stone Bridge date from this period.

From 1663 to 1806 the Imperial Diet met in Altes Rathaus. This made the city an important centre of the Holy Roman Empire.

Regensburg Must-Sees

Regensburg features one of the best-preserved medieval city centers in Europe, designated a UNESCO World Heritage site. Key landmarks include the 13th-century Gothic Saint Peter's Cathedral and the 12th-century Stone Bridge, a masterpiece of medieval engineering. Visitors can explore Roman history at the Porta Praetoria, the northern gate of a 2nd-century legionary camp, or visit the Thurn und Taxis palace. The narrow lanes of the Old Town house the Historic Sausage Kitchen, which has served grilled sausages since the 12th century.
