Overview

Salamanca is a university city in western Spain, about 210 km west of Madrid. Its old town is built of golden sandstone and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The university was founded in 1218, and students still fill the streets.

The old town is small and flat, so you can see the main sights on foot in two days. Salamanca suits travelers who like architecture, history and lively evenings. Language students come here from all over the world, so there is plenty of cafe and bar life.

When to visit

Spring and autumn are the most pleasant seasons. Summer days are hot and dry. Winters are cold, with frost and some fog.

The biggest event is Holy Week (Semana Santa) before Easter. Processions cross the old town for days, and the Plaza Mayor is full. Book rooms well ahead if you plan to come then.

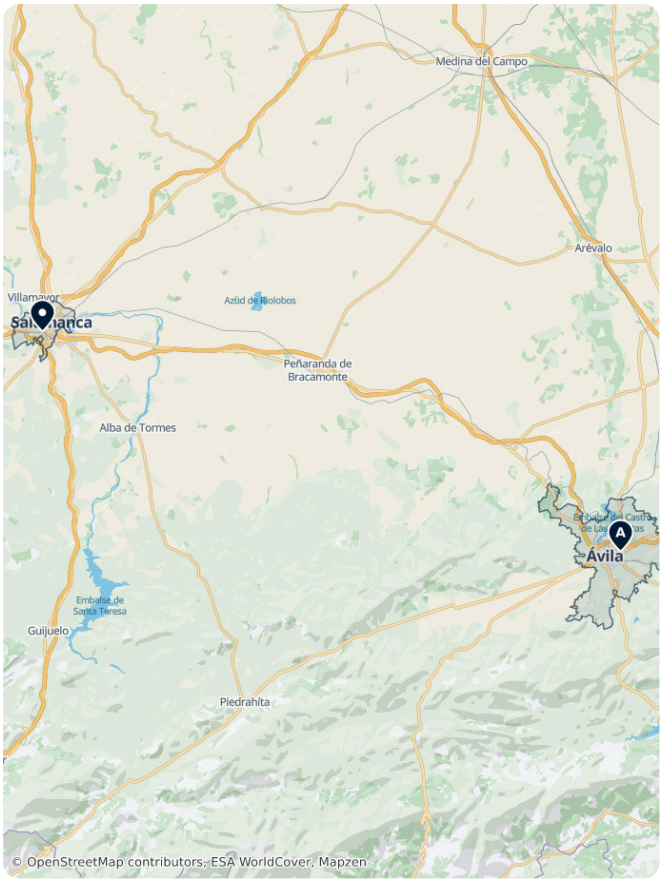
What to experience

- Search for the frog on the university front. Local tradition says finding it brings luck.
- In the evening, listen for a student tuna in or near the Plaza Mayor. These groups play and sing in traditional black costume.

Day trips

Salamanca has a few good trips of one day or less.

- Alba de Tormes (about 20 km, 25 minutes by bus or car): a small town where Saint Teresa of Ávila died in 1582.
- Zamora (about 65 km, 50 minutes by car): a quiet city with many Romanesque churches.
- Ciudad Rodrigo (about 90 km, 1 hour 10 minutes by car): a small town inside complete medieval walls.
- Ⓐ Avila (about 100 km, about 1 hour 15 minutes by car): a city known for its complete medieval wall.



Where to explore

Other historic cities in Castile and León:

- Nearby: Avila and Segovia.
- Further north and east: Valladolid city, Burgos and León.
- Wine and mountains: Ribera del Duero for red wine, and Sierra de Gredos for hiking.

Getting there

- By air: Most visitors fly to Madrid-Barajas (MAD) and continue to Salamanca by train or bus.
- By train: Trains from Madrid take about 1.5 to 2 hours. Book on Renfe.
- By bus: Direct coaches from Madrid take about 2.5 hours.
- The train and bus stations are outside the old town. Take a taxi or a city bus, or walk.

Getting around

- On foot: The old town is flat and compact. All main sights are within 15 minutes of the Plaza Mayor.
- Cycling: Cycling is possible, but the old town has many pedestrian streets.

Getting around on foot & by bike

WALKABILITY

High

The old town is flat and compact, with many pedestrian streets.

CYCLING INFRASTRUCTURE

Moderate

Cycling is possible, but the old town has many pedestrian streets.

Driving

- Is a car worth it?: Not for the city. A car helps for day trips to villages.
- Parking: Leave the car in a car park outside the old town and walk in.
- Restrictions: Many streets in the old town are closed to normal traffic.

Food & drink

Salamanca is known for ham from the nearby area and for farinato, a spiced pork sausage. Hornazo is a pie filled with pork meat and egg, eaten especially around Easter.

Tapas bars cluster in the streets around the Plaza Mayor. Cafes under the arches of the square are good for a coffee, but the prices are higher.

What to eat & drink

BREAKFAST

Churros · Churros con Chocolate
Fried dough sticks served with a thick, dark hot chocolate for dipping — a classic Spanish breakfast or late-night snack.

LUNCH

Paella Valenciana
A saffron-scented rice dish cooked in a wide, shallow pan. The traditional Valencian version uses chicken, rabbit, and green beans — best eaten at midday.

Gazpacho
A cold, blended soup of raw tomatoes, cucumber, pepper, garlic, olive oil, and vinegar, originally from Andalusia. Served as a drink or a starter, especially in summer.

DINNER

Pulpo a la Gallega
Boiled octopus sliced onto a wooden board and dressed with olive oil, coarse salt, and smoked paprika — a signature dish of Galicia.

SNACKS & STREET FOOD

Jamón Ibérico
Dry-cured ham from acorn-fed Iberian pigs, sliced paper-thin and eaten on its own or with bread. The finest grade, jamón ibérico de bellota, is one of Spain's most prized products.

Tortilla Española
A thick potato and egg omelette, served warm or at room temperature, found in virtually every bar in Spain. Often eaten as a tapa or a quick meal.

Patatas Bravas
Fried potato chunks served with a spicy tomato sauce or aioli — one of the most common tapas across the country.

Pintxos
Small snacks anchored to slices of bread with a toothpick, the Basque Country's answer to tapas. Found in bar counters across San Sebastián and Bilbao, often with elaborate toppings.

Croquetas
Crispy breaded cylinders with a creamy béchamel filling, typically made with jamón, bacalà (salt cod), or mushrooms.

DRINKS

Rioja Wine · Vino de Rioja

Spain's best-known wine region produces full-bodied reds from Tempranillo grapes, aged in oak. The crianza, reserva, and gran reserva labels indicate increasing age and complexity.

Safety & health

Salamanca is a very safe city. Watch your bag in crowds, especially in the Plaza Mayor and during Holy Week.

Winter mornings can be icy on the stone streets.

History

Romans built the bridge over the Tormes. In the Middle Ages the city became a center of learning, and the university was founded in 1218.

The golden stone buildings date mainly from the 15th to 18th centuries. Catedral Nueva de la Asunción de María was begun in 1513 next to the older church. The Plaza Mayor was built in the 18th century in the Baroque style.

Salamanca's Golden Treasures

Salamanca's architectural legacy is defined by its Villamayor sandstone, which gives the city its distinctive golden glow. This collection features the 1st-century Roman bridge, the interconnected Old and New Cathedrals, and the historic University of Salamanca. Notable landmarks include the shell-adorned Casa de las Conchas, the ornate Plateresque facade of San Esteban Convent, and the Baroque heights of La Clerecía, representing a timeline of Romanesque, Gothic, and Renaissance styles.
