TRAVEL GUIDE

Tripomatic

Overview

Lake Constance (Bodensee) is a large lake where Germany, Switzerland and Austria meet. The German shore lies in Baden-Württemberg and Bavaria. It is the longest of the three shores.

The lake suits a slow trip with boats, bikes and small harbour towns. Gardens, castles and museums are spread along the shore. Vineyards and orchards grow in the mild local climate.

This guide covers the German side.

When to visit

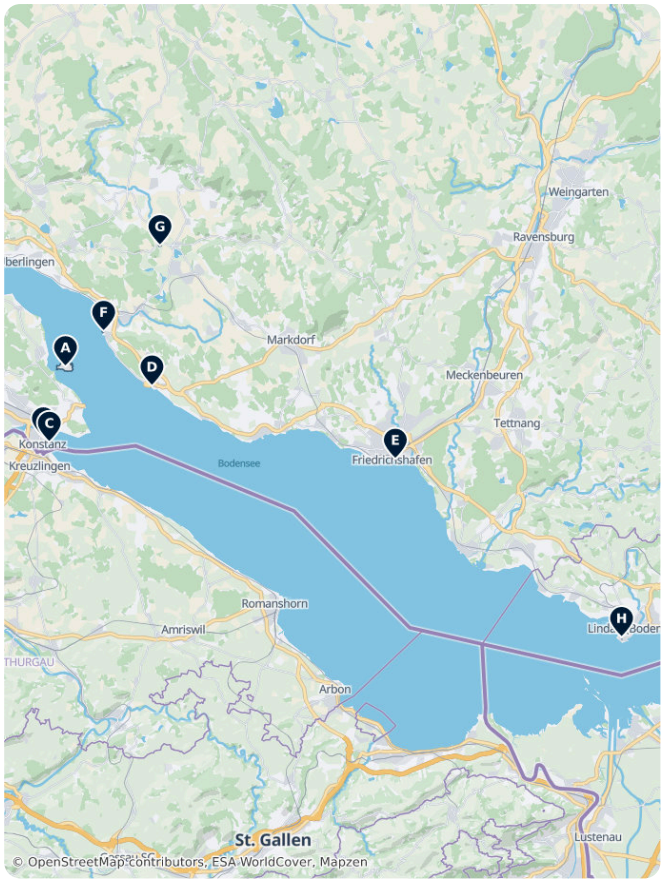

May to September is the main season. Summer is warm enough for boat trips and swimming. Rain is common in all seasons, so plan indoor options.

Winter is cold and the days are short.

What to experience

- Take a scheduled boat between two lake towns to see the shore from the water.
- Book a sightseeing flight in a Zeppelin NT from Friedrichshafen.
- Walk or cycle across the causeway to Reichenau island to see its three early medieval churches.

Where to explore

- Lindau is on the eastern shore, in Bavaria.
- Meersburg is a wine town on the northern shore.

Konstanz, Friedrichshafen and Überlingen are the other larger towns on the German shore.

Getting there

- By air: Zurich Airport is a major gateway. Friedrichshafen Airport lies on the German shore. Stuttgart and Munich airports are further options.
- By train: Konstanz, Friedrichshafen and Lindau all have train stations. Book at Deutsche Bahn.

Getting around

- Boats and ferries: Scheduled passenger boats link towns around the lake, mostly in the warmer months. Car ferries cross between Konstanz and Meersburg. See Bodensee-Schiffsbetriebe.
- Visitor pass: The Bodensee Card PLUS is a regional visitor pass. See Bodensee tourism.

Getting around on foot & by bike

WALKABILITY

Moderate

Individual lake towns are walkable, but the shore is long.

CYCLING INFRASTRUCTURE

High

A cycle route circles the lake, and ferries shorten the loop.

Driving

- A car helps for inland sights such as Salem. The shore towns are easy to reach without one.

Food & drink

- Felchen (whitefish) is a typical lake fish.
- The vineyards of Meersburg are known in Germany. Weissherbst, a rosé, is a regional speciality.
- Reichenau island is known for its vegetable farms.

For eating out, walk the harbour promenades of Konstanz, Friedrichshafen and Lindau. They have many cafés and restaurants.

What to eat & drink

LUNCH

Doner Kebab · Döner Kebab
A sandwich of roasted meat, salad, and sauce in flatbread, invented by Turkish immigrants in Berlin and now a national staple.

DINNER

Schnitzel
A thin, breaded and fried cutlet, usually pork, served with potatoes or fries and a lemon wedge.

Sauerbraten
A pot roast marinated for days in vinegar and spices before slow cooking, served with red cabbage and dumplings.

SNACKS & STREET FOOD

Bratwurst
A grilled or fried pork sausage, often served in a bread roll with mustard, sold at stands nationwide.

Currywurst
Sliced sausage topped with curry-spiced ketchup, a Berlin invention now popular across the country.

Pretzel · Brezel
A large, chewy salted bread pretzel, especially common in Bavaria, often eaten with butter or cheese.

SWEETS & DESSERTS

Black Forest Cake · Schwarzwälder Kirschtorte
A layered chocolate sponge cake with cherries, cherry liqueur, and whipped cream.

DRINKS

Beer · Bier
Germany brews hundreds of regional styles, from Bavarian Weissbier to Cologne's Kölsch, each tied to its home city.

Gluhwein · Glühwein
Mulled, spiced red wine served hot, a staple of winter and Christmas markets.

Apfelschorle
Apple juice mixed with sparkling water, the everyday non-alcoholic drink of choice.

Lake Constance Essentials

Bordered by Germany, Austria, and Switzerland, Lake Constance features the floral gardens of Mainau Island and the medieval Meersburg Castle. The region preserves history through the UNESCO-listed prehistoric stilt houses at Unteruhldingen and the Zeppelin Museum in Friedrichshafen. In Konstanz, the Romanesque Minster and the 14th-century Council building mark significant religious milestones, while the harbor is defined by the rotating Imperia statue. Lindau offers a Bavarian island setting with a historic lighthouse, and Bregenz provides a scenic promenade along the Austrian shore.
