Overview

Vitoria-Gasteiz is the capital of the Basque Country, in northern Spain. It has a well-kept medieval old town on a hill, wide green spaces and a calm, friendly feel.

It is less visited than Bilbao or San Sebastián, so it is quiet and good value. It suits one or two days, and it is a good stop on the way between the Basque coast and La Rioja.

When to visit

Late spring, summer and early autumn are the best seasons, with mild to warm weather. Rain is common all year, and winters are cold and grey.

The main festival is the Fiestas de la Virgen Blanca, from 4 to 9 August, with street parties and parades. A jazz festival takes place in July.

Where to explore

Other places nearby:

- Basque Country: Bilbao and San Sebastián.
- Wine and old cities: Logroño and Burgos.

Getting there

- By air: Vitoria airport (VIT) has few passenger flights. Bilbao airport is about 65 km away and has many more.
- By train: Trains run to Madrid, Burgos and Bilbao. Book on Renfe.
- By bus: Coaches serve Bilbao, San Sebastián, Madrid and many towns in the region.

Getting around

- On foot: The old town and the center are compact and mostly flat, and a lot of streets are pedestrian only.
- Cycling: The city has many bike lanes and a green belt of parks and paths around it.
- Public transport: A tram and buses link the center with the outskirts.

Getting around on foot & by bike

WALKABILITY

High

The old town and center are compact and mostly flat, with many pedestrian streets.

CYCLING INFRASTRUCTURE

High

The city has many bike lanes and a green belt of paths around it.

Driving

- Is a car worth it?: Not for the city. A car helps for wineries and mountain villages.
- Parking: Use an underground car park near the center, since the old town is mostly car-free.
- Restrictions: Much of the center is pedestrian only.

Food & drink

Vitoria has a strong food culture. Pintxos (small plates on bread) are served in the bars of the old town, and local dishes include potatoes with chorizo and Idiazabal sheep's cheese.

The Basque white wine txakoli and the red wines of Rioja Alavesa go well with the food.

What to eat & drink

BREAKFAST

Churros · Churros con Chocolate
Fried dough sticks served with a thick, dark hot chocolate for dipping — a classic Spanish breakfast or late-night snack.

LUNCH

Paella Valenciana
A saffron-scented rice dish cooked in a wide, shallow pan. The traditional Valencian version uses chicken, rabbit, and green beans — best eaten at midday.

Gazpacho
A cold, blended soup of raw tomatoes, cucumber, pepper, garlic, olive oil, and vinegar, originally from Andalusia. Served as a drink or a starter, especially in summer.

DINNER

Pulpo a la Gallega
Boiled octopus sliced onto a wooden board and dressed with olive oil, coarse salt, and smoked paprika — a signature dish of Galicia.

SNACKS & STREET FOOD

Jamón Ibérico
Dry-cured ham from acorn-fed Iberian pigs, sliced paper-thin and eaten on its own or with bread. The finest grade, jamón ibérico de bellota, is one of Spain's most prized products.

Tortilla Española
A thick potato and egg omelette, served warm or at room temperature, found in virtually every bar in Spain. Often eaten as a tapa or a quick meal.

Patatas Bravas
Fried potato chunks served with a spicy tomato sauce or aioli — one of the most common tapas across the country.

Pintxos
Small snacks anchored to slices of bread with a toothpick, the Basque Country's answer to tapas. Found in bar counters across San Sebastián and Bilbao, often with elaborate toppings.

Croquetas
Crispy breaded cylinders with a creamy béchamel filling, typically made with jamón, bacalà (salt cod), or mushrooms.

DRINKS

Rioja Wine · Vino de Rioja

Spain's best-known wine region produces full-bodied reds from Tempranillo grapes, aged in oak. The crianza, reserva, and gran reserva labels indicate increasing age and complexity.

Safety & health

Vitoria-Gasteiz is a very safe city. Rain is frequent, so bring a waterproof jacket and comfortable shoes for wet cobbles.

History

Vitoria was founded as a fortified town in the 12th century by the king of Navarre, and later became part of Castile. Its old town keeps the almond shape of its medieval walls.

It became the capital of the Basque Country in 1980. The city was named the European Green Capital in 2012.
