The Fountains of Olomouc

37min · 1.5 km · 5 stops

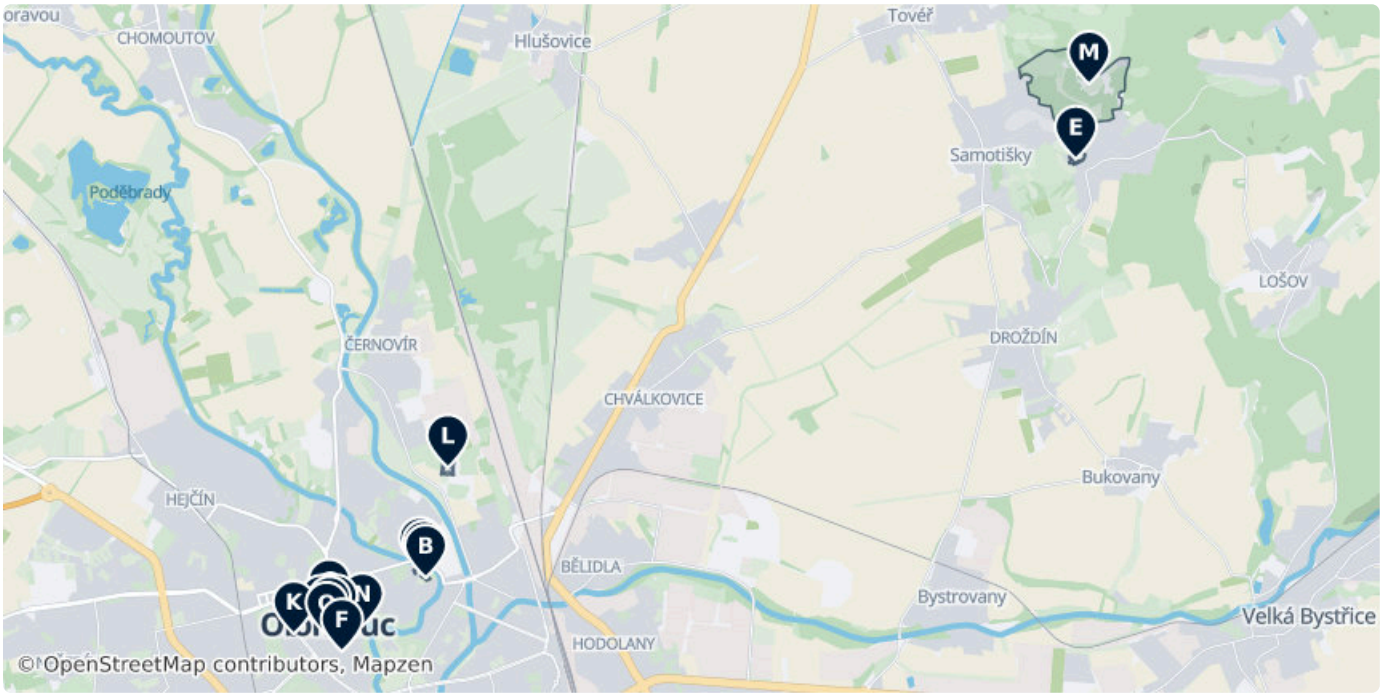

1. Triton Fountain
2. Jupiter Fountain
3. Neptune Fountain
4. Caesar & Hercules Fountains
5. Mercury Fountain

Meet Olomouc's six baroque water gods — and the playful modern outsider who joined them in 2002 — on a walk through the historic centre's two grand squares. Vain Caesar and mighty Hercules hold court outside the Town Hall; feuding Neptune and Jupiter face off on the Lower Square; quick-footed Mercury and the sea-god Triton mind their own corners nearby. Along the way, you'll also pass the UNESCO-listed Holy Trinity Column, the whimsical Astronomical Clock, and the twin-spired Cathedral of St. Wenceslas.

Olomouc Essentials

Olomouc features Central Europe's largest collection of Baroque monuments outside Prague, centered around the UNESCO-listed Holy Trinity Column. The city's history is reflected in the Gothic St. Wenceslas Cathedral and the socialist-realist reconstruction of its 15th-century astronomical clock. Beyond the historic core, the list includes the Svatý Kopeček pilgrimage basilica and the monumental Hradisko Monastery. Six Baroque fountains and the modern Arion's Fountain decorate the public squares, while the Archdiocesan Museum preserves the city's spiritual and artistic heritage.
