Overview

Santa Cruz de Tenerife is the capital of Tenerife, in the Canary Islands, and a busy port city on the island's northeast coast. It has a relaxed island atmosphere, modern architecture, parks and one of the biggest carnivals in the world.

The city is close to a golden-sand beach and the forested Anaga mountains. It suits a day or two, and it is a good base for exploring the north of the island.

When to visit

The weather is mild all year, with warm summers and gentle winters, and the city is sunnier and drier than the green north coast of the island. Summer is hottest, and winter can be cloudy with some rain.

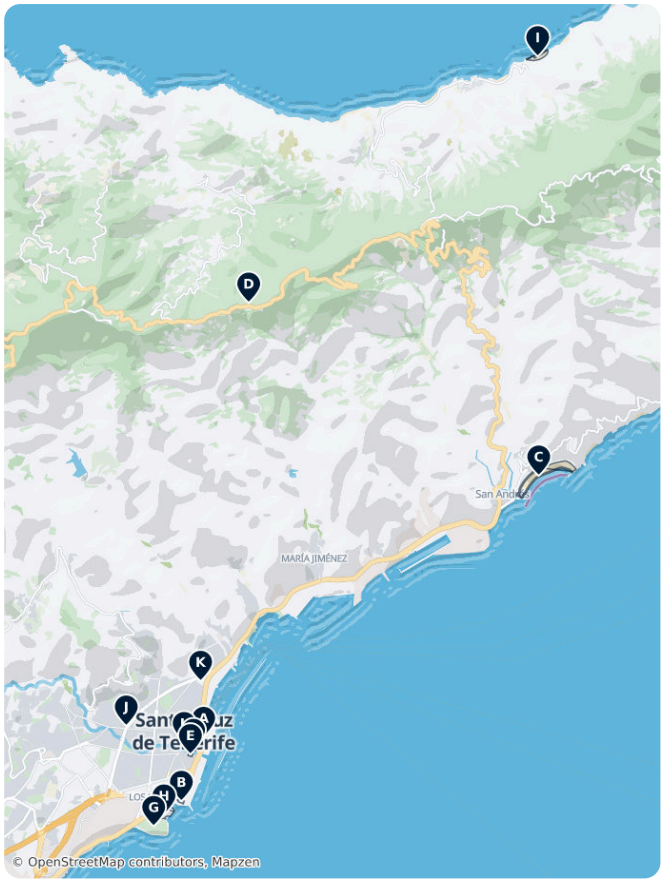

Carnival, in February or March, is the major event, with parades, music and costumes. It is the busiest time of year, so book early.

What to experience

- Spend a day at Las Teresitas beach.
- Hike one of the laurel forest trails in the Anaga mountains.
- Join Carnival if you visit in February or March.

Day trips

- La Laguna (about 9 km, 15 minutes by tram): a UNESCO World Heritage colonial town.
- Ⓐ Teide National Park (about 60 km, 1.5 hours by car): the volcano Teide and its lunar landscape.
- Ⓑ La Orotava (about 45 km): a historic valley town with wooden balconies.
- Ⓒ Garachico (about 70 km): a coastal town with natural lava pools.
- Anaga Rural Park (about 20 km): hiking, viewpoints and fishing villages.

Where to explore

Other places on Tenerife and nearby:

- Tenerife: Tenerife, La Orotava and Garachico.
- Nature: Teide National Park.
- Nearby islands: Gran Canaria and La Gomera.

Getting there

- By air: Tenerife North airport (TFN) is about 12 km from the center and has domestic and some European flights. Tenerife South airport (TFS) is about 70 km away and has more international routes.
- By ferry: The port has ferries to the other Canary Islands, including Gran Canaria, La Gomera and La Palma.
- By bus: Frequent buses (TITSA) link the city with the airports and the island.

Getting around

- On foot: The center is compact and mostly flat. Most sights are within a 15 to 20 minute walk.
- Tram: A tram line links the center with La Laguna.
- Public transport: TITSA buses reach the beach at Las Teresitas and the Anaga mountains.

Getting around on foot & by bike

WALKABILITY

High

The center is compact and mostly flat, and most sights are within a 15 to 20 minute walk.

CYCLING INFRASTRUCTURE

Moderate

The center is flat with some bike lanes, but the surrounding area is hilly.

Driving

- Is a car worth it?: Not for the city. A car helps for Teide, the north coast and villages.
- Parking: Use an underground car park in the center.
- Restrictions: Parts of the center are pedestrian only. Mountain roads in Anaga are narrow and winding.

Food & drink

Canarian food is simple and based on local produce. Papas arrugadas (small wrinkled potatoes) are served with mojo sauces, red or green. Fresh fish, grilled cheese and gofio (toasted grain flour) are typical.

Local wines come from the volcanic slopes of the island.

What to eat & drink

BREAKFAST

Churros · Churros con Chocolate
Fried dough sticks served with a thick, dark hot chocolate for dipping — a classic Spanish breakfast or late-night snack.

LUNCH

Paella Valenciana
A saffron-scented rice dish cooked in a wide, shallow pan. The traditional Valencian version uses chicken, rabbit, and green beans — best eaten at midday.

Gazpacho
A cold, blended soup of raw tomatoes, cucumber, pepper, garlic, olive oil, and vinegar, originally from Andalusia. Served as a drink or a starter, especially in summer.

DINNER

Pulpo a la Gallega
Boiled octopus sliced onto a wooden board and dressed with olive oil, coarse salt, and smoked paprika — a signature dish of Galicia.

SNACKS & STREET FOOD

Jamón Ibérico
Dry-cured ham from acorn-fed Iberian pigs, sliced paper-thin and eaten on its own or with bread. The finest grade, jamón ibérico de bellota, is one of Spain's most prized products.

Tortilla Española
A thick potato and egg omelette, served warm or at room temperature, found in virtually every bar in Spain. Often eaten as a tapa or a quick meal.

Patatas Bravas
Fried potato chunks served with a spicy tomato sauce or aioli — one of the most common tapas across the country.

Pintxos
Small snacks anchored to slices of bread with a toothpick, the Basque Country's answer to tapas. Found in bar counters across San Sebastián and Bilbao, often with elaborate toppings.

Croquetas
Crispy breaded cylinders with a creamy béchamel filling, typically made with jamón, bacalà (salt cod), or mushrooms.

DRINKS

Rioja Wine · Vino de Rioja

Spain's best-known wine region produces full-bodied reds from Tempranillo grapes, aged in oak. The crianza, reserva, and gran reserva labels indicate increasing age and complexity.

Safety & health

Santa Cruz is a safe city. The sun is strong all year, so wear sun protection. Atlantic currents at the beaches can be strong, so swim where lifeguards are on duty, and take care on mountain trails in fog or rain.

History

Santa Cruz was founded in 1494 by the conqueror Alonso Fernández de Lugo, as a port on the route between Spain and the Americas. In 1797 the British admiral Horatio Nelson lost his arm in a failed attack on the town.

It replaced La Laguna as the capital of the Canary Islands in the 19th century, and today it shares the role of regional capital with Las Palmas de Gran Canaria.

Santa Cruz de Tenerife Essentials

Santa Cruz de Tenerife serves as a gateway to both avant-garde architecture and ancient natural landscapes. The city features Santiago Calatrava's wave-like Auditorio de Tenerife and the subterranean remains of the 16th-century Castle of San Cristóbal. Natural highlights include the Anaga Massif's prehistoric laurel forests and the Palmetum, a botanical garden built on a former landfill. Urban spaces range from the neoclassical Parque García Sanabria to the bustling Mercado de Nuestra Señora de África, known for its Mudéjar-style architecture and fresh local produce.
